

No Campaigning Zone

Within the 100 foot No Campaigning Zone, no one may loiter, congregate, or engage in any kind of election campaigning. Individuals permitted within the 100 feet include election officials, observers, police officers, exit pollsters, and voters waiting to mark, marking, or casting their ballots.

Flags must be posted 100 feet from the door used for voters entering the building.

Permitted:

- Campaigners are permitted to hand out literature outside of the 100 foot No Campaigning Zone.
- Campaigners are permitted to speak to voters outside of the 100 foot No Campaigning Zone.
- Voters are allowed to bring literature into the location as long as they keep it with them and do not display it to other voters.
- Exit pollsters are permitted to speak to voters inside the 100 foot No Campaigning Zone but they may NOT enter the polling location, interfere with or disrupt the election. They may not wear anything that can be considered campaigning for or against any candidate or issue on the ballot.

Prohibited:

- Attempting to hinder or delay any voter from reaching or leaving the polling location
- Soliciting or attempting to influence any voter in casting his vote in any manner
  - This includes any kind of incentives (e.g. money, food, favors, etc.)
- Placing literature on vehicles parked within the 100 foot Zone
- Giving or exhibiting any ballot, including one which the voter intends to cast, except to an official of the election.
- Entering the room where voting is occurring during the election, except to vote or conduct the election. Unless they are assisting with conducting the election, or are there for safety reasons, this includes election officials, building employees, witnesses, challengers, or police officers.
